Essay: The tendency and international politics of North Korea after Jeong-eun Kim appeared on the stage.

Abstract: After Jeong-eun Kim appear on the stage, the structure of party and military of North Korea have been adjusted systematically, and establishing North Korea labor party's core status in activities of country politics and the nuclear power as well as economic development enjoy the same vital status of the strategy in country development. In terms of international affair, in order to improve the security dilemma situation, they still try to improve the relationship of North Korea and The United State for establish diplomatic relations and change the Korean peninsula truce mechanism into peace mechanism. Moreover, in order to add the bargain chip and improve economic development, North Korea on the one hand persistent the statue of Nuclear nations, for another, enhance the strategic cooperation relations with China, and strengthen economic cooperation roundly with China at the moment of The tumen river national development strategy, which made by China. Jeong-eun Kim also adjust the policy to South Korea to recover The kaesong industrial park and mount kumgang tourism and reinforce economic cooperation with South Korea. In addition, Jeong-eun Kim carried out diversification strategy on foreign policy, intensify the cooperation and exchange with Southeast Asia, Middle east and Europe, and agree to solve nuclear problem and peace problem of Korean peninsula. However, whether the adjust of North Korea foreign policy success or not is up to the adjust of The United State's strategy of Northeast Asia and the change of relationship between the United State and North Korea.
